Matthew Richardson, R. Acu

Diagnosis and Treatment Consent Form

I, the undersigned, do hereby give my voluntary consent for the administration of acupuncture, dry needling acupuncture techniques and other relevant Chinese medical therapies.

Acupuncture and the dry needling technique have been explained to me as a traditional Chinese medical treatment performed by the insertion of special sterilized fine needles with or without the application of electrical stimulation through the skin into the underlying tissues and muscles at specific points on the body for the purpose of alleviating pain and treating other clinical conditions.

Ancillary techniques of acupuncture may include one or more of the following:

- Moxibustion -whereby herbal heat is applied to specific acupuncture points
- Cupping- whereby suction cups are applied to specific points on the body or motion suction cups
- Auricular Acupuncture- whereby needles, press tacks, or ears seeds are inserted onto the surface of the ear in order to effect healing.

I have been made aware of the possibility of complications which may result from these procedures. These include infection (rare), bruising and bleeding into the tissues, pain and discomfort, weakness, tiredness, fainting, nausea, aggravation of existing symptoms for a short time, etc.

I state that I do not have the following conditions:

• Pregnancy
• Bleeding disorders
• Pacemaker
• Local infections
• Taking Anticoagulants (blood thinners)

If I have any of the above conditions, I have listed them here: ----------
